MEMORANDUM FOR: [REDACTED]

STATINTL

This will clarify our telephone conversation concerning my memorandum to Mr. Colby dated 7 June 1973, subject: Quotas for Senior Officer Schools.

Since 1960 we have been invited to send only one representative each year to the Army War College and will of course continue to do so per Mr. Colby's hand-written note on the memorandum.

As a matter of interest, in 1968 the College had a last-minute vacancy and the Agency was invited to send a second representative. We accepted the invitation and sent our first black representative to the College.
